

TREES AS GREEN STORMWATER INFRASTRUCTURE:

How are we doing?

August 8, 2019

Pond & Company, Peachtree Corners GA

Program Agenda

10:00 – 10:10 a.m.	Welcome and Announcements Mary Lynne Beckley , Executive Director, Georgia Tree Council Susan Granbery , U&CF Coordinator, Georgia Forestry Commission
10:10 – 11:10 a.m.	Trees as Green Infrastructure: Utilizing the Urban Forest for Stormwater Management Brenda Guglielmina DeepRoot Green Infrastructure, LLC
11:10 – noon	Norcross and Alpharetta Case Studies These projects helped these cities map and plan for their urban forest and recognize the benefits trees provide for stormwater management. Karen Firehock , Executive Director, Green Infrastructure Center Charlottesville, VA
Noon – 12:30	Lunch
12:30 – 1:15 p.m.	GIS on the Georgia Tech Campus – Updates Jason Gregory , RLA, LEED AP, Sr. Planner, Landscape Architect, Capital Planning & Space Management Jerry Young , Landscape Project Manager Georgia Institute of Technology
1:15 – 2 p.m.	Project Updates City of Atlanta Watershed Department
	Q & A
Adjourn	